

DVSTOP Fact Sheet

Domestic Violence Safe Temporary Overflow Program

WHAT: This program seeks to provide short-term emergency shelter to victims when county domestic violence shelters are full. DVSTOP provides:

- safe housing
- basic-needs assistance
- case-management and advocacy services
- parent support
- intensified networking with county DV shelters

In addition, DVSTOP serves as a community resource by providing callers with crisis intervention, resource and referral. All services are free of charge.

WHO: Services are available for adult victims of domestic violence and adult victims with children in need of immediate shelter, who are eligible and willing to participate.

WHERE: Services are provided over the phone and in pre-authorized safe housing in the community when necessary.

Call CONTACTS at (800) 799-7739 or (602) 263-8900 for placement and information.

WHY: It is estimated that 3 out of every 4 victims of domestic violence who are seeking shelter are turned away due to lack of space. DVSTOP was designed to address this unmet need in the community. Staff is available 24-hours a day to begin intervention services for victims when other community shelter space is unavailable.

HOW: Collaborators include American Red Cross, City of Phoenix, Community Information and Referral, Valley of the Sun United Way, Maricopa County domestic violence shelters, and numerous private funders.

2. How long do clients typically stay?

Clients typically work with DVSTOP for one to two days before moving into longer-term, safe housing.

3. Do DVSTOP clients receive the support they would receive in a shelter?

DV STOP clients receive many of the same support services they would in a shelter. Staff members provide crisis intervention, case management, basic needs, and parent support to clients until they are able to enter a shelter or other safe environment.
