

Autumn House Fact Sheet

- WHAT: A 24-hour crisis program for victims of domestic violence. Autumn House serves women, men and their children who require temporary shelter and support as a result of violence in the home. Services include:
- Crisis hotline
 - Information and referral assistance and resources
 - Basic needs assistance
 - Domestic violence education
 - Empowerment through self-awareness classes
 - Goal setting
 - Case Management and Advocacy
 - Community Support Groups
- WHO: Autumn House provides refuge for thousands of survivors of domestic violence. More than 300 adults and children are served annually, including adult males and male children over the age of 12.
- WHERE: Location is confidential. Crisis hotline: (480) 835-5555
- WHEN: Autumn House has provided services to the community since 1983 and was the East Valley's first domestic violence shelter.
- WHY: Domestic violence is a pervasive problem with devastating results. A New Leaf opened Autumn House in response to community initiatives, and with the support from various agencies and the City of Mesa.
- HOW: Autumn House utilizes volunteer support and receives funding from the Mesa and Valley of the Sun United Ways. Other support comes from fundraising events, individual and business donations, and a variety of charitable organizations.
- CONTACT: (480) 835-5817

DES Statement Requirement: This project was funded by the AZ DES, Community Services, Administration, DV program. Points of view are those of the author and don't necessarily represent the official position or policies of the department. Under the Americans with Disabilities Act, A New Leaf must make reasonable accommodation to allow a person with a disability to take part in a program, service or activity. For example, this means that if necessary A New Leaf must provide sign language interpreters for people who are deaf, a wheelchair accessible location, or enlarged print materials. It also means that we will take any other reasonable action that allows you to take part in and understand a program activity, including making reasonable changes to an activity. If you believe that you will not be able to understand or take part in a program or activity because of your disability, please let us know of your disability needs in advance if at all possible. Please contact Candace Johnson.

A New Leaf: Helping Families...Changing Lives through Domestic Violence, Homeless, Community and Youth Programs

Employment Opportunities: Human Resources (480) 464-7466, apply online.
Call (480) 969-4024 for reasonable accommodation on information, services and employment.
Hearing impaired call TDD (800) 367-8939.
www.turnanewleaf.org

Frequently Asked Questions

1. How many people per year does Autumn House serve?

Autumn House typically serves 300 adults and children a year, about half of which is children under the age of 18. Autumn House has 22 beds and some cribs for infants.

2. How long are victims able to stay at Autumn House?

Autumn House provides emergency shelter and a safe haven for 30 - 120 days, (depending on client's needs) during which time case-managers work with the client to find permanent or transitional housing.

3. How are victims referred to Autumn House?

To enter the shelter, clients call Maricopa County's CONTACTS (Community Network for Accessing Shelter) hotline, which refers them to domestic violence shelters that have beds available.

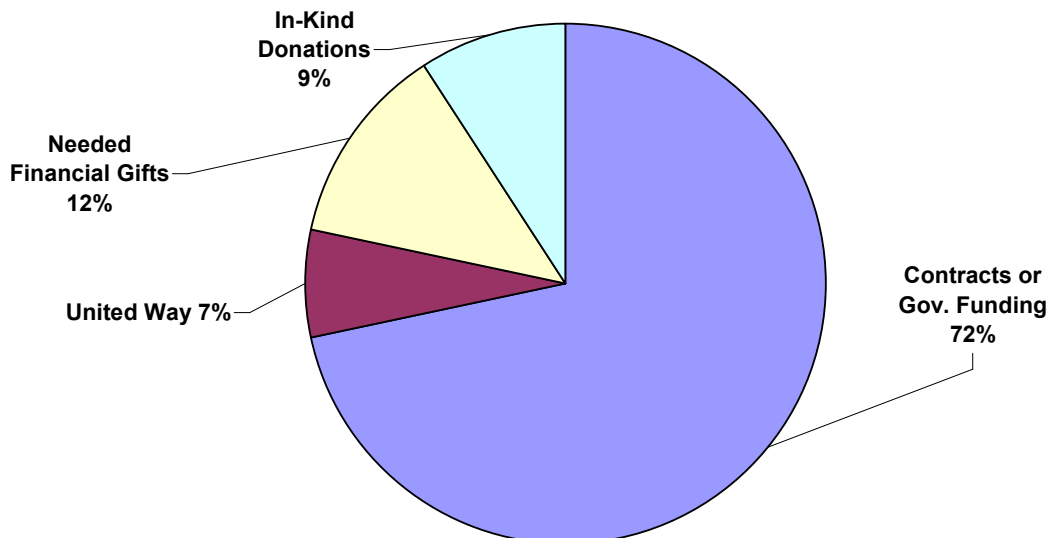

4. Is Autumn House able to accept men fleeing domestic violence?

Autumn House is one of the few domestic violence shelters in the Valley that are able to accommodate adult male victims as well as women with boys over the age of 12.

5. How can I help?

You can help Autumn House by giving a donation online, participating in an annual drive or volunteering. To find out more about ways to help visit www.turnanewleaf.org.

A New Leaf's Autumn House
2007- 08 Fiscal Year Budget $732,417

The cost per night for Emergency Services is $88 per person.