

Financial Wellness

program fact sheet

improving your financial health

A New Leaf's Financial Wellness program gives you the freedom to achieve financial security. With financial knowledge and actionable steps, Financial Wellness prevents stress due to financial struggles.

Education plays a significant role in your financial well-being. Financial Wellness offers free resources online and in-person. Along with self-evaluation, this education can help you better understand how to reach your financial goals. You must be at least 18 years old and have a willingness to be actively working towards goals to be eligible.

Services offered through this program include:

- One on One Financial Coaching
- Credit Building and Repair
- Budgeting & Spending Plan
- Saving Money for Emergencies
- Establishing Banking Services
- Financial Literacy Workshops

A New Leaf also partners with Operation HOPE to offer free services to adults, youth, disaster survivors, and employees. Financial coaching will equip you with the financial knowledge and tools to create a secure future.

As well, A New Leaf has participated in America Saves Week for many years. We believe that saving for the future, for the unexpected and for financial goals is important to one's overall well-being and peace of mind.

helping you achieve financial stability

A New Leaf believes that saving for the future, for the unexpected and for financial goals is important to one's overall well-being and peace of mind. For this reason, A New Leaf offers financial coaching that will equip you with the financial knowledge and tools to create a secure future.

A New Leaf's Financial Wellness Programs equips households with the skills they need to save money, make investments, and achieve long-term financial stability and independence.
