empowering services

A New Leaf's Financial Empowerment Services seek to help households achieve financial stability, get ahead in the workforce, or even start a business and pursue their dreams.

The goal of these services is to assist individuals and households in achieving financial independence. A New Leaf's programming consists of financial assistance, entrepreneurial training programs, employment support, career advising, and more. These resources ensure households are able to assess their financial and career needs, and then find immediate solutions.

financial assistance

A New Leaf's financial assistance services help households with a variety of needs. We imagine a community in which households are able to thrive independently, and A New Leaf is here to guide our community along every step on the journey to financial freedom.

employment and career support

A New Leaf imagines a community in which households are able to thrive independently. Whatever employment assistance someone needs, A New Leaf is here to guide our community along every step on the journey to financial freedom.

entrepreneurship and small business

A New Leaf believes that anyone should be able to achieve their dreams of starting their own business, or growing their existing business. We support our local economy by providing assistance and resources to small businesses ready to start or expand.
