nurturing parenting program

helping your family thrive

A New Leaf's Nurturing Parenting Program works with families to strengthen their parenting abilities, with services provided both in-home and in the community. This program is short-term and offers benefits that will improve the parent-child relationship for a lifetime.

Parents learn age-appropriate expectations of children's development, how to understand and support the needs, feelings and wishes of children, how to avoid punishments and use non-violent discipline, how to establish appropriate parent and child family roles, and how to empower children's independence and self-awareness.

The Nurturing Parenting Program will give you the skills and support you need to strengthen your parenting!

All programming education and support utilizes the Nurturing Skills for Families curriculum. Other curriculums can be used to best meet the needs of families such as:

- Families in Substance Abuse Treatment and Recovery
- Nurturing Father's Program
- Nurturing Parenting for African American Families
- LGBTQ Lesson Guide
- Native American Lesson Guide.

nurturing parenting services

A New Leaf's Nurturing Parenting Program serves clients that are referred from the Department of Child Safety. If a family is working with the Department of Child Safety they should inform their DCS Specialist that their family could benefit from the Nurturing Parenting Program. The DCS Specialist will determine if the family is eligible for the service, and if so, will make a referral for the service.

location

Services are provided in a variety of locations depending on the client's needs.
