financially empowering services

A New Leaf's VITA Program is a powerful anti-poverty tool, providing free tax preparation services ensuring that hard-working individuals receive the maximum tax benefits available without losing hundreds of dollars in paid tax preparation fees.

The program is administered by IRS-certified volunteers who provide free basic income tax return preparation with electronic filing to qualified individuals.

A New Leaf's VITA Program primarily serves low-to-moderate-income households, senior citizens, non-English speaking individuals, and individuals with disabilities. The VITA Program serves all ages, ethnicities, genders, and backgrounds.

The VITA Program provides services to thousands of people annually, saving low-to-moderate-income households hundreds of thousands of dollars in tax preparation fees. This ensures low-to-moderate-income households receive the maximum tax refund possible, while also keeping millions of tax dollars in local communities.

help with filing your taxes

A New Leaf recruits and trains approximately hundreds of volunteers each year to provide tax preparation services at convenient locations for low-to-moderate-income households to access services.

Households are given referrals and access to additional support, including: budget coaching, financial literacy classes, employment services, health insurance enrollment, and asset development programs, which matches low-income individuals' savings for pursuing a post-secondary education.

The VITA Program is primarily active during the tax season, from January to April. Volunteers are recruited and trained to facilitate the VITA program from August to December.

A New Leaf's Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Program offers free tax assistance to households who make $58,000 or less, focusing on persons with disabilities, the elderly, and limited English speaking taxpayers who need assistance in preparing their own tax returns.
